Chorus

G C G
Oh, ye'll tak' the high road, and I'll tak' the low road

G Em D
And I'll be in Scotland before ye

But trouble it is there, and mony hearts are sair

G C D G
On the bonnie, bonnie banks o' Loch Lo-mond.

G C G
'Twas there that we parted in yon bonnie glen

G Em D
On the steep, steep side o' Ben Lo-mond

G C G
Where in purple hue the Highland hills we view

G D G
And the moon glints out in the gloamin'.

G C G
There the wild flowers spring and the wee birdies sing

G Em D
And in sunshine the waters are sleep-in'

G C G
But the broken heart it kens nae second spring again

G D G
Though resigned we may be while we're greetin'.
